THE BATTLE OF VLAKFONTEIN.

Reawakens English Interest in Boer War.

BIG LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES.

Dixon's Force May Have Been Surprised-in Any Event Boers Were the Assailants.

New York, June 1 .- A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Gen, Kitchener's account of the battle of Vlakfontein serves to light up public interest once more in the Boer war. Two facts stand out. First, the determined nature of the Boer assault upon an intrenched position, fifty miles from Johannesburg: and, secondly, the heavy losses suffered by both sides. This has been the first real engagement which has been fought for many months and it is decisive proof that the Boers, when led by a cool and wary general like Delarey, can still offer strenuous resistance to British arms. The details of this batile may indicate that Gen. Dixon's force was surprised and that the casualty was run up to 174 in this way. But the Boers, in any event, were the assail-ants and were not repulsed without severe losses. The Boers are also reailantry while in pursuit of Gen.

A British officer who is on furlough after fighting from Colenso to Lydenburg, has been predicting that the closing skirmishes of the campaign would occur on the line of the Durban-Johan-nesburg railway in the vicinity of Hei-delberg and Standerton. Both of these affairs were within the theater of war defined by this officer months ago as the last Boer ditch.

The natural explanation of the fighting is that one mine after another is opening and the refugees are returning to Johannesburg in small groups, and the Boers have been making desperate efforts to frighten them and to prevent resumption of industry in the gold belt. Vlakfontein was probably designed to be a loud warning to the refugees that the war had not ended, and that Johannesburg was still an unsafe place of residence

LOOMIS WILL NOT RETURN. He Will Not Go Back to His Old Post in Venezuela. Washington, May 31 .- It is officially dmitted that Minister Loomis will not eturn to Venezuela. There are two reasons for this decision. In the first blace, Mr. Loomis has suffered in health at his uncongental post, and in the second place, the President is not disposed to expose him again to the merciless attacks he has suffered in Venezuela as a result of the execution of the order of the state department. Mr. Loomis, who is now in Europe seek-ing to recuperate, will be given another iplomatic position as soon as a suit-ble place can be found. Meanwhile Mr. Russell will remain in charge of the pited States legation at Caracas for a period of time not yet determined upon, but likely to be fixed by the attitude of the Venezuelan government.
